Dear All,

The government has now published details on school closure which can be found here.

This includes advice for parents which can be found here.

I am sorry that this information was not available when we wrote to you last night.

Please be aware that we are not encouraging families who qualify for supervision to send their children in unless they have to. The advice states that, if a child can be safely cared for at home, they should be.

With prayers and best wishes,

James Kibble
